

Gathering for August Quarterly

Saturday, August 19, 2017

1:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Mitchell Center for African American Heritage
504 N. Market Street, Wilmington, DE 19801

Young visitors (ages 5–12) and their families can celebrate August Quarterly with a storytime about the life of Peter Spencer and decorate their own church fans.

Peter Spencer founded the first independent all-black church denomination in Wilmington in 1813, and started the August Quarterly, now the oldest African American festival in the United States. He became widely known in Delaware as a church and community organizer, preacher, pastor, teacher, and anti-slavery activist.

Program fee is included with museum admission:

Adults $6.00

Seniors (65+)/Military/Student (with id) $5.00

Children (3-18) $4.00

Free on street parking.

